

Central Baptist Church Digital Worship Service

April 19, 2020

This guide is meant to help your family have a time of worship in your home. This is a unique time for our church. We don't know how long we will continue to have a digital gathering like this. Our prayer is that this time away from each other physically will grow the fondness we have for one another. We are looking forward when we can gather together in the same space sometime very soon.

Pastoral PrayerMatt Dugan

Pastor Matt will go Live on Facebook with a short prayer at 11:00 am. Check the church Facebook page www.facebook.com/itascacbc to see the prayer live. It will post as a video to view later if you miss the live airing.

Worship through Song

We have selected several songs to be sung by you and your family during the worship time. Check the church website www.itascacbc.org/music to follow along, you can also use this link to a YouTube playlist that has all the song, the Scripture Reading, and sermon videos. These songs of worship here are meant to be an encouragement to lead you to the throne of God.

Come Thou Fount
How Great Thou Art

Worship through Reading Psalm 108

We continue now with our regularly scheduled reading of the Psalms. One of our church members has recorded the Scripture reading for this Sunday on video. Turn to the passage, and if it is possible, stand where you are in honor of the reading of God's word. What the video here; <https://youtu.be/YUq1F9YBoCA>

Worship through Song

This last song is a chance for spiritual reflection for everyone. This song has an impactful reminder about how we prioritize God. In this time where we are prevented from gathering in person with each other, a constant spiritual evaluation is necessary. The joy of a church family is the spirit of accountability that roams within the Body of Christ. With this time of providential hindrance that keeps us separate, we lose the ability to pour into each other's lives through edification and reproof. Listen to the message of this song as you perform a "spiritual check-up" on your heart and life. Are there any idols weighing you down this morning? Play this video as a time of reflection and if you know the song, sing along.

Clear the Stage

Worship through Giving

We can still give our tithes and offerings. They can be sent through the mail (401 E Monroe St. Itasca, TX 76055) or online giving is available at www.itascacbc.org/give-online. Ask someone in your family to take this time to pray for the financial well-being of our congregation, especially during this time of lost wages and hours at work. Pray that God would continue to bless our church through these tithes and offerings so that we can serve the community of Itasca and beyond.

Worship through The Word Matt Dugan

We have prerecorded Pastor Matt’s sermon and loaded it to YouTube.com. You can watch it by looking at the church website www.itascacbc.org/digital-worship or by following the YouTube link at <https://youtu.be/DoxwESMbCwE>. You can access the sermon notes by following this link <http://itascacbc.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/04/04192020-Ephesians-5.1-14.pdf>.

Closing Prayer

Ask someone from your family to pray for each person in the room. Pray that God would strengthen our bonds as brothers and sisters in Christ. Ask God to prepare you for the week ahead as you serve Him faithfully and reach out to serve those around you.

At the conclusion of this time of worship, feel free to interact with the sermon leaving a comment on the YouTube page or connecting on the church Facebook page. Reach out to at least one fellow church member this week and encourage them in the Lord!
